

Using the Arts for Resiliency in Rural Communities Symposium March 27-28, 2014

Apalachicola Center for History, Culture & Art, Apalachicola FL

Presented by Franklin's Promise Coalition, the UF/IFAS Center for Public Issues
Education, the UF Center for Arts in Medicine

Thursday, March 27

10-10:30	Welcome and Introductions
10:30-11:15	Plenary Session: General Concepts of Resiliency Panel
11:30-12:05	Plenary Session: Understanding Health Disparities
12:10-12:45	Session: Breakout Session 2: Art Therapy: Creativity & Resilience	Session: Community Building through Arts Events
12:45-1:45	Lunch
1:45-2:30	Roundtable: Identifying Barriers to Resiliency and Addressing them through the Arts	Workshop: Visual Journaling and Self-care
2:30-2:45	Q&A/Discussion
2:45-3:00	Break and transition to Holy Family Senior Center
3-5:00	Workshop: Square Dancing with Andy Kane at Holy Family Senior Center
5-6:30	Dinner
6:00-9:00pm	Community Square Dancing Workshop/Event

Friday, March 28

9-9:20	Experiential
9:20-10:20	Film
10:20-10:35	Break
10:35-12	Workshop: The Arts and Violence Prevention
12-1:30pm	Lunch on the town
1:30-2:05	Session: Using the Arts in Disaster Relief
2:10-2:45	Session: Music in the Church for Community Building and Coping
3-3:45	Workshop: Drumming Circles for Community Building and Resiliency	Training: Developing and Maintaining Healthy Partnerships
3:45-4:30	Discussion Panel/Conclusion	